

Conference Goal & Objectives

The goal of this conference is to have each participant understand and discuss advances in pressure ulcer and wound care management strategies through the continuum of care.

Susie Seaman will:

1. describe assessment findings for atypical ulcers due to pathologies such as nonatherosclerotic ischemia, inflammation, and carcinoma.
2. review the basics of local and systemic therapy for the treatment of the above conditions.
3. identify three assessment findings for patients with venous ulcers, arterial ulcers, and diabetic foot ulcers.
4. review the basics of treatment of these leg ulcers.

Judy Papen will:

1. discuss challenges in heightened patient acuity in the acute care environment.
2. discuss pain as it relates to pressure ulcers and wounds.
3. identify solutions to complex wound situations.
4. define Incontinence Associated Dermatitis (IAD) and describe its appearance.
5. list the risk factors leading to the development of IAD.
6. state the differences between IAD and pressure ulcers.

Dale Allison will:

1. identify the nurses' attitudes in responding to culturally diverse patients.
2. review patients' attitudes toward western and traditional wound care.
3. discuss contrasting and converging health care perspectives for patient response and outcomes.
4. identify how cultural diversity impacts care in the outpatient wound care setting.
